To be eligible for the short film competition, films must have been completed since 1 January 2016 and be 30 minutes or less in duration.

Non-English language films

The official languages of the festival are English and Greek.

To qualify for selection, all non-English language films must have an English-subtitled screening copy available.

Submission Info

The submission of films may proceed in three ways:

1. Directly at the festival website: www.animationmarathon.eu
2. External submission platform Filmfreeway
3. External submission platform Click for festivals

Screening Copies

Screening copies must be provided for all accepted films.

For films submitted through FilmFreeway or Click for Festivals the submissions must be available for download through their equivalent platform.

For films submitted through the festival website the films must be uploaded to the Festival's Cloud (instructions will be sent to the participants after they have been accepted) or provided through a downloadable link from www.dailymotion.com.

No other means of screening copy submission will be accepted (dropbox, ftp, googledrive etc.)

If participants do not provide a screening copy through the methods mentioned above their film will be disqualified.

Promotion

The entrant agrees that up to 30' of their film, stills and film info may be used by the festival in promotional activities including screening a clip on television and on the festival's website.

Note that:

1. Entering a film implies the acceptance of these regulations.
2. When submitting to Animation Marathon, you are agreeing to screen the submitted film during the dates of the festival.
3. You may not re-submit a project that was part of the official selection of a previous edition of the festival.
4. By submitting a film to Animation Marathon, the submitter represents that he or she has obtained the necessary consent from any and all owners, creators, writers, producers and/or other authorized representatives of the film and has agreed to the terms.
5. Upon completion of the festival selection process, organizing committee will contact the submitter using the contact information provided on the submission form to notify him/her of the film's acceptance status. Animation Marathon will not be held responsible for any failure to contact the submitter using the contact information provided on the submission form. It is responsibility of the submitter to ensure that the contact information provided on the submission form is correct.

6. Animation Marathon is under no obligation to provide to the submitter or any other representative of the film any comments or feedback regarding the submitted film.
7. Animation Marathon does not pay screening fees for submitted films.
8. Animation Marathon has the right to add, alter, change, or delete any portion of the guidelines at anytime without notice.

Terms and conditions update: 27 August 2018.

Animation Marathon wishes you the best of luck.
